NOTICE TO ALL EXHIBITORS

At print time the state of Pennsylvania, has not passed a new budget. Consequently no money has been budgeted for county fairs at this time. The only premiums guaranteed are those events with a sponsored premium. This is the same situation we were in last year with state budget. If the state allocates money, we will pay all premiums accordingly.

We are very pleased to say that all 2009 premium money was paid in full. This was after we were guaranteed 50% of our 2008 reimbursement at a November zone meeting. However, we had to pay all 2009 advertised premiums in their entirety to be eligible.
Some fairs only paid part of their premiums, while some paid zero. Consequently, they received no reimbursement from our state. Premium checks were mailed prior to receiving state funding in January. Thanks to everyone who entered exhibits last year knowing there may be no premiums paid.

We regret having to make this difficult decision. But, we want all to be informed before entering exhibits for the fair. For most exhibitors it’s the competition of the event, not the amount of premium money you receive. Please don’t let this divert you from placing your exhibits on display.

Thanks : The Franklin County Fair
